“In the Beginning:

An Introduction to the New Testament”

P-205

(As you enter the Historic Lobby, walk down the hallway to the left. Take your next left, and the room will be on the right. Or simply follow the rowdy crowd.)

What is the New Testament and how can it offer some, if any, guidance in my life and in today’s world? This class will begin the journey with a foundational introduction to Scripture and continue with a deliberate and intentional exploration of our sacred text as a path toward a deeper relationship with God. You are welcome wherever you are on your journey of faith. There is no prerequisite for this class.
