

Theology on Tap 2008

Theology on Tap is a relaxed gathering in Uptown Charlotte offered by First Presbyterian Church. It is an opportunity to ask real questions about God, ourselves and the world. We meet monthly (3rd Thursdays) at CANS on the corner of Graham and 5th Streets. For more information, please contact Wes Barry at wbarry@firstpres-charlotte.org or 704-927-0240.

January 17, 7pm

Does God want me to be rich?

Does God's promise of blessing include financial blessing?

Are there benefits for following Christ?

February 21, 7pm

Do I have to go to church on Sunday to be a Christian?

Can I be a follower of Christ, yet not attend a worship service?

Is the Church necessary for faith?

March 20, 7:30pm

Holy Week Maunday Thursday Service

An evening communion service and opportunity to reflect on the betrayal and death of Christ and the impact on our lives

At First Presbyterian Church 200 West Trade Street

April 17, 7pm

Who is the judge here?

Are Christians too judgmental?

Is the Church filled with hypocrites?

Should we hold each other accountable?

May 15, 7pm

Pro-this, anti-that?

What are the marks of a follower of Christ?

Do we have to ascribe to a certain political belief?

What happens when we disagree?